

Lincoln Creek Week 2006

April 22nd - 29th

PRELIMINARY CONCEPT PLAN
Markham Ravine Nature Area - North & South Branches
CITY OF LINCOLN, CALIFORNIA

LEGEND OF PROPOSED IMPROVEMENTS

Trails	Trail Amenities	Habitats
Designated Crosswalk	Interpretive Sign	Created Seasonal Wetland/Stream
Multilane Trail	Plant Area	Valley Oak Woodland
Foot Path	Parking	Blue Oak Savanna
Boardwalk	NC Nature Center	Riparian
Class II Blue Lane	Vernal Pool	Channeling Wetland
Potential Bridge	Hydrologic Connection

LEGEND - EXISTING CONDITIONS

WATERS OF THE U.S.
DEPRESSIONAL WETLANDS
Seasonal Wetland
Vernal Pool
Seasonal Marsh
Perennial Marsh
REVERINE WETLANDS
Seasonal Wetland
Perennial Marsh
OTHER - WATERS OF THE U.S.
Perennial Drainage
Wastewater Treatment Basin (abandoned)
50-foot Off-set
OTHER - BICYCLE ROUTES
Existing Class II Blue Lane

Celebrating the Proposed Markham Ravine Nature Area “A Lincoln Jewel in the Rough”

The Markham Ravine Neighborhood Committee is now seeking sponsors, donations and logo designs for the Third Annual Lincoln Creek Week, to be conducted April 22nd – April 29th, 2006.

The week long celebration will include creek cleanups at the Markham Ravine, Auburn Ravine and other waterways located throughout Lincoln. There will also be educational forums, a bird watching tour and a grand opening children’s festival at Markham Park.

Please contact Bill Plumb at 434-1772 / email webmaster@markhamravine.org For further information please go to our website at www.markhamravine.org